

here are laws in Michigan that protect your safety and health as a

WORKER

Your rights and responsibilities under the Michigan Occupational Safety and Health Act (MIOSH Act) are briefly outlined in this brochure. It is important! Read it and save it for future reference.

Your Rights

- A place of employment free from hazards that could cause you serious harm or death.
- Personal protective equipment provided at no cost when required by a MIOSHA standard.
- Training on any conditions that may adversely affect your health and safety.
- Right to Know training on the chemicals you're exposed to on the job.

- To request a MIOSHA inspection and that your request remain confidential.
- To file a complaint if you feel you have been discriminated against for exercising your MIOSHA rights.

Your Responsibilities

- To follow all rules and standards of the Michigan Occupational Safety Act.

- You must not remove, displace or damage safety guards and equipment.
- Wear the personal protective equipment that was provided for you.
- You must not interfere with the use of safety equipment by another employee.
- Practice workplace safety and health.
